“

Global Smart Factory Summit, supervised by “Government of Shanghai’s Songji-ang District” & organized by “Ringier Trade Media”, serves manufacturers of wide range of consumer products in industries such as automotive, 3C, food & beverages, personal care products and more. The event’s purpose is to create a platform for technical professionals to gather and to provide them with the easy to apply solutions for upgrading their facilities with the use of industrial internet, autocontrol technologies, and other smart solutions that can make them more competitive and reduce their manufacturing costs.

Flexible processing trend, predictive management and maintenance of the facilities, creating extensive digital structure of the factory elements for the IIoT system – those are just a few of challenges that manufacturers face. But how to choose the right platform? Where to start? How to assess needs and plan the transformation? And how to do it with the lowest cost as possible, while not hurting the quality? Should you follow innovations introduced by giants like Ali, Tencent, HUAWEI or look for solutions tailored for smaller enterprises?

Those are just a few questions that we will help you answer during Smart Factory Summit. This event will focus on providing you with comprehensive information regarding many important steps to turn your factory into a robust, efficient, intelligent manufacturing unit. By participating you will gain access to real life solutions, practical technology updates and case studies in automation, cost lowering, inventory management and more.....

Are you ready for the future?
